The presentation explores the historical records of the resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth, looking at both the Bible and secular accounts from the first century that corroborate the apostles' eye-witness testimony of our risen Lord. Mission Mite money totaling over $14,000 is needed each month for the next three months, or $800 each day by June 2018 to fulfill all the mission grants voted at the 2016 MN South LWML District Convention. Your contribution in the LWML Mite Box is greatly appreciated. One mission grant is for The Dwelling Place, Columbia Heights, which provides for women and children in need of a clean and safe environment.

An Ingathering box (BLUE BIN) is marked in the narthex to provide for the items needed. This Ingathering will be taken to the Spring Mission Gathering of the Faribault Zone LWML on April 7 at Trinity Lutheran Church, 803 Winona St., Northfield, MN. Misty Zacharias, a faith-based Psychotherapist practicing in Faribault, is the presenter who will speak on the topic, "Depression and Suicide in Today's Youth: A Message of Hope."

Call Jane Teschke (332-9416) if you have any questions and would like to join us.

WOMEN IN MISSION will meet Thursday, March 15 in the Fellowship Hall with Sheila Kreger conducting the LWML Prayer Service "Living as God's People," written by Rev. Dr. Robert Roegner. It is based on I Peter 2:9-12, where Peter reminds us of our identity. You are invited to join us in prayer and fellowship.

TRIP TO MISSION CENTRAL

Howard & Kathy Bode are hosting a bus trip to Mission Central in Mapleton, Iowa, if there is enough participation in our church to fill a bus. The trip will be Saturday, April 21; the bus will leave at 6:30 a.m. and return at 9:00 p.m. Cost would be about $28 for the bus, and we would stop on the way home to eat on our own. Sign up at the Information Center in the narthex.

Mission Central has had thousands of LCMS visitors to this five acre farmstead in the middle of cornfields in West Central Iowa. They come to see the Creation Museum, hear presentations by visiting missionaries, and to hear Gary Thies, a "not normal" layperson who has devoted his retirement years to supporting our missionaries by visiting them in their mission fields and then coming home and reporting, first-hand to congregations across our synod, the miraculous ways the Holy Spirit works when people hear about Jesus.

This will not be a "normal day" for you and your guest friends who want to learn how they can have an IMPRACT for the kingdom, so be bold and commit to this trip and come along and see what happens. Just in case you are wondering, Gary Thies never asks for money It's an amazing place!
