The Holy Space of Love

An ancient story is told of two brothers who shared grain fields and a mill and, at day's end, equally divided the results of their labor. But the unmarried farmer felt that his brother, with a family to support, should have a greater share. So each night, under cover of darkness, he added some of his grain to his brother's.

Meanwhile, the married brother was concerned that his single brother would have no children to care for him in his old age. So each night he, too, added to his brother's granary.

One night, the selfless brothers ran into each other. Grasping what was going on, they laughed and embraced. Rabbinic legend holds that on that spot — where love was freely shared — God decided his Temple should be built. Wherever people act in sacrificial love, the space between them is holy.

Stewardship Every Sunday: Acts 2:1-21

The events of Pentecost remind us of the global mission of the church. The ending verses of our reading remind us not only of the geographical spread of the Gospel, but the proclamation of the Gospel over time.

Each one of us is part of that mission. Locally or globally, now or in the future, we serve God and support the church's mission with our resources.
 Truly the Spirit works the miracle of faith, but faith is not sustained and nourished outside of the Word of God. The proclamation of the Word happens through the physical presence of people who give of themselves in service to the church.
 God's stewards recognize that all that they have and are results from what He has done. As His modern disciples and stewards, we, too, want to use our resources to make the proclamation of the Gospel a priority.

The Radio Club is looking for volunteers to be videographers for our Sunday services. We are looking for at least two people to help cover the 8:00 am services and 4-6 people to help cover the 10:30 services. Only about 1 service per month would be required. The system is very easy to learn and everyone is welcome to join us!

Please contact Todd Voge at 507-291-1306 or at todd@trinityradioandvideo.org.
