STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship Every Sunday: Matthew 28:16-20

When Jesus sent His disciples into the world to make disciples of others, He was speaking to us also. We can never forget that this is what He wants us to do. All the earthly blessings our Heavenly Father has entrusted to us are to be used toward this goal. The money we spend in our daily living should be spent in ways that glorify Him as much as the money we give in our regular offerings. The way we speak and act and treat others Monday through Saturday should reflect Christ's love as much as our Sunday worship. The disciples had walked with Jesus, seen Him dead and buried, and alive again. They were ready to obey Him, to receive the Holy Spirit and teach others everything about Him. Have we been blessed any less than they were blessed? Can we do any less?

 swers, and an opportunity for God's people to offer to the Lord either a one-time sacrificial gift, or a two- or three-year sacrificial pledge in support of the new edition. Please prayerfully consider what gift you will offer to the Lord for the new offices.
