A Word: After walking with Christ through Lent and remembering his suffering in Holy Week, we are able to say, "Christ is risen!" We read briefly about the resurrection in our Gospel reading, where the angel meets the women at the tomb with the good news, "Christ has risen from the dead!" In Acts 10, Peter briefly recounts the events of Jesus' life. He then points out what those events reveal, that Christ is "the one appointed by God to judge the living and the dead." But not only has God appointed Christ as our judge, he has also promised that all who believe in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name. Finally, Paul reveals that we are participants already in Christ's resurrection. Christ, our true life, is in heaven. And while our life will not be revealed until Christ is revealed, we must strive to live the life of heaven on earth today by daily drowning our sinful nature and rising to new life, just as Luther also teaches us in the Small Catechism. —Pastor Alex

HUMAN CARE

"As Christians, we rejoice in the Savior who shines light on our lives when we only expected inky blackness. May God's strong Word remind us that the fullness of life is meant to be lived in the light. In our weakness, may the Lord bring alongside us faithful brothers and sisters to proclaim that God is light and life to us, and let us walk in the light as He is in the light (1 John 1:7). In Jesus we have light, and to have light is to have life. May we rejoice in proclaiming the message of Jesus as the Apostle John did. Thanks be to God that He is light, and He shines in the darkness."
